GET A BIG GIFT AT ANY TIME

Employees' Ten-Thousand Fund to Red Cross Washington's Largest.

Ten thousand, four hundred and sixty dollars, the largest single gift that has come to the Washington Red Cross War Service Fund, came from the men of the Washington Navy Yard late yesterday afternoon.
It is more than has been given up to date by all the other departments of the government combined.

Chairman Macfarland said that the gift met the full expectation of the finance committee, and showed what could be done by thorough organization and careful effort. The interest taken by the men of the yard in the command, and the other officers of the yard, and the foremen of the shops had much to do with the result.

The finance committee was further encouraged by many additional gifts and by many cordial expressions of approval of the executive committee's guarantee to national headquarters, that Washington would make up whatever might be lacking of its quota —$500,000—when Red Cross Week returns were all in. "Washington will make up its quota," said the finance committee from all over the city.

By Saturday it is hoped to have the reports of Red Cross Week from all the government departments and organizations. Even then returns from the sixty-five thousand coin-and-subscription-blank containers mailed to all the sections of the city, may still be in. Meanwhile, the finance committee is going right ahead with its work and expects continuous giving. President Wilson has asked that next Sunday, July 1, be observed in all the Sunday schools of the United States as "Patriotic Sunday" by giving to the Red Cross. In his letter, addressed to the Sunday schools, he said:

"The present insistent call of our beloved country must be heard and answered by every citizen of the United States in proportion to his or her ability to contribute to the national power and honor. Many citizens will render their aid by force of arms on the battlefield, while others will make the nation strong by their patriotic gifts of support to the nation's common cause. It is, therefore, highly fitting that the Sunday schools of the nation should observe a special patriotic day, and on this occasion should make a special contribution to the American Red Cross, for the alleviation of the suffering entailed by the prosecution of the present war.
It is my earnest hope that your youth will be unstinted in this, the hour of the nation's need, and that this special day may mean much to you in the understanding of the cause for which our beloved land now contends."

Increase War Service Fund.
The war service fund may be increased from $250 to $1,500 if, as Chairman Macfarland suggests, everyone who would have given $1 or more for the customary Fourth of July display, properly to be omitted this year, gives it to the Red Cross.

Everybody is going to the Congressional baseball game on Saturday, which may add $500 to the fund.

ceived yesterday:

NO REGISTRY CARD
NO DRINK, IS RULE

James Brown Falls to Show Ticket; Gets Into Fight.

James Brown got into an argument as a result of a bartender having his double about James' age. Tuesday James went into a third parlor and ordered a glass of beer. The bartender drew it, but before handing it to James asked him to show his registration card. He did not produce it.
James was then shown the door.
Not even his nickel was returned, according to James. He catapulted through the door and started to swear at the bartender. A policeman arrested him and he was fined $5 in Police Court.

Brother and Sister Celebrate.

Husband and wife, or man and woman often make up their minds to get drunk and do so. But brother and sister rarely indulge in such practices together. At least this happens to be the opinion of the court.
William and Lettie Fletcher, residents of Rock creek, according to the testimony of their own mother, were so drunk a day or two ago that a policeman had to be called to quiet them. Lettie was caught just in time to prevent the delirium tremens from running away with her. Both escaped with a fine of $5 for disorderly conduct.

Liquor Starts Family Row.

Returning home rather suddenly Tuesday, James H. Symonds discovered two bottles of liquor in the parlor table of his home and several persons around the table drinking. Enraged at liquor being brought into his home, James called his wife to account. Friend wife did not like the "call down" and spoke her mind.
James spoke his, too, but a trifle too loud and his boisterousness attracted a policeman who arrested him for disorderly conduct. He was fined $5.

CATHOLIC SISTERS EQUALLY TREATED

Red Cross Chairman Disclaims Dress Discrimination Rumor.

To offset a rumor which has been put in circulation that the American Red Cross was discriminating against the nursing sisterhoods of the Catholic Church, Cardinal Gibbons has received the following letter in part from Elliot Wadsworth, acting chairman of the American Red Cross, Washington, with whom he took the matter up.

"The question of the attitude of the American Red Cross toward utilizing the services of nursing sisterhoods has been raised several times lately.

"Rule 9 of the duties of committees on nursing service of the American Red Cross, adopted nearly eight years ago, recites it is the duty of the committee:

"To keep on file lists of sisterhoods and other orders and women volunteers available for Red Cross relief work involving the care of the sick or wounded, either in time of war or calamity."

"It seems advisable to state unequivocally to you at this time that members of the nursing sisterhoods may wear their official dress while serving in the Red Cross."

"The Red Cross has no desire in any way to debar the sisters on account of their dress, or on any other account, from serving their country as all other nurses will desire to do."
